Regional Program Assistant

The Northeastern Connecticut Council of Governments (NECCOG) located in Dayville, Connecticut, serving sixteen towns, has openings for two Regional Program Specialists to perform complex planning, research, consultative, technical and program work. Work involves developing local and regional plans (for example: land use, economic, transportation, environmental) or programs and developing procedures for implementation and evaluation of plans or programs. Other work involves providing consultative and technical services to other governmental agencies and the general public. Successful candidates will have strong written and verbal communication skills, work effectively in a highly collaborative team setting and be a self-starter that can complete quality products within deadlines. Bachelor's degree (Masters preferred) in urban planning, public policy, public administration or closely related field. GIS proficiency is desired. Please see full job ad at www.neccog.org. Submittal requirements include a letter of interest to the Executive Director and resume. Review of candidates to begin March 1. Open until filled. NECCOG is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer.
